

Green Thumb Awards

2025 NOMINATIONS

It's once again time to recognize and honor efforts to beautify Edwardsville through landscaping, flowering or gardening projects. The Green Thumb Awards are handed out annually by the Edwardsville Environmental Commission to encourage projects that foster neighborhood and civic pride.

Nominations are due no later than Monday, June 30, 2025.

Who's eligible for a Green Thumb Award?

Anyone who maintains property located within Edwardsville City limits and has not received a Green Thumb Award in the previous five years is eligible for an award. Self-nominations are encouraged! The award committee will consider the character of a project, such as whether it's maintained by a homeowner, professionally designed and maintained or maintained by volunteers.

Nominations can fall into one of four categories (circle one):

RESIDENTIAL CIVIC NEIGHBORHOOD BUSINESS/COMMERCIAL
(Block/subdivision)

Address of nominated property: _____
(or block/subdivision) _____

Nominee's name: _____
(or neighborhood contact) Phone: _____

Your name: _____
Phone: _____

Special property features the Green Thumb Award Committee should note:

Why do you think this property deserves a Green Thumb Award?

Are there any other comments you'd like to share? (Photos are welcome)

